

§ 990.404

24 CFR Ch. IX (4–1–03 Edition)

§ 990.404 Retention of excess revenues.

(a) Any income generated by a resident management corporation that exceeds the income estimated for the income category involved as specified in the RMC's management contract must be excluded in subsequent years in calculating:

(1) The operating subsidy provided to a HA under part 990, subpart A.

(2) The funds provided by the HA to the resident management corporation.

(b) The management contract must specify the amount of income expected to be derived from the project (from sources such as rents and charges) and the amount of income to be provided to the project from the other sources of income of the HA (such as operating subsidy under part 990, subpart A, interest income, administrative fees, and rents). These income estimates must be calculated consistent with HUD's administrative instructions. Income estimates may provide for proration of anticipated project income between the corporation and the PHA, based upon the management and other project-associated responsibilities (if any) that are to be retained by the PHA under the contract.

§ 990.405 Use of retained revenues.

Any revenues retained by a resident management corporation under § 990.404 of this subpart may only be used for purposes of improving the maintenance and operation of the project, establishing businesses enterprises that employ residents of public housing, or acquiring additional dwelling units for lower income families. Units acquired by the resident management corporation will not be eligible for payment of operating subsidy.
